

WHAT IS THE ENNEAGRAM?

The Enneagram is a powerful system that describes nine distinct personality types and their interrelationships. It supports in-depth clinical understanding of our clients so we can quickly craft interventions most likely to be effective for them.

"I think there's a lot of wisdom in understanding personality through the Enneagram framework."
~ Daniel Siegel, MD

Using the Enneagram in Clinical Practice or

October 5, 6 & 11, 2019

CLINICIANS' FEEDBACK

"In my 20 years of practice, this is by far the most informative and exciting approach to treatment and interpersonal growth."

"Outstanding! I have a much deeper understanding of my own type and the perspectives of my clients and those in my personal life."

"Instructors demonstrated warmth, competency, and work well as a team."

"This was by far the best workshop I have ever attended. This information is invaluable and already my clients are telling me how much more I get them."

Instructors

Renie Hope, MA, LMHC, specializes in helping her clients reclaim a sense of joy, passion and meaning in their lives. She has taught the Enneagram for over 30 years in business, university and personal growth settings and uses it extensively in her practice with individuals and couples. She has expertise in dream work, object-relations psychology and the expressive arts. She is a Certified Teacher of the Diamond Approach and has been a student of that work since 1988. In that context she's worked with the Enneagram's spiritual dimensions for many years, working directly with Sandra Maitri and A. H. Almaas.

Debra Janison is a Benedictine-trained spiritual director who's studied the Enneagram for more than 20 years. She is a student of Helen Palmer and David Daniels, completing their Enneagram Professional Training Program in 1997. She founded Enneagram Olympia in 2008 and teaches, consults and coaches throughout Puget Sound. She's a member of the Association of Enneagram Teachers in the Narrative Tradition (EANT). Debra has 20 years' experience in employment and training program management and public policy with the State of Washington.

Vision Point was founded in 1995 by Renie Hope and Carol Ruth Summers. Carol Ruth retired from Vision Point in 2013. Debra is currently on a long-term leave of absence.

Learning Goals

(Part 1)

- Discover your Enneagram "point of view".
- Gain an understanding of how people from the other 8 points of view function.

(Part 2)

- Find out what works best in therapy with each of the personality types.
- Learn what not to do in therapy with each of the personality types.
- Learn how to shift your point of view and alter your behavior to improve relationships with clients, colleagues, bosses, friends and mates.
